SAVES DAUGHTER

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for hearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months:

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly tro-bles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not 10 me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardul is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

if you sulfer from any of the allments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui doday. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women many thousands of con the past 50 years. At all druggists.

Acting Was Splendid and the Young Ladies Handled Their Parts Admirably.

'Shakespeare's Lovers" was pleasingly presented by the Sentor English class at Auderson college last night before a fairly large crowd. The scene, The Forrest of Arden; the time, The Merry Month of May. The prologue by Miss Zuliene Masters was a splendid feature and was loudly encored. The Prologuizer was gaily garted in red. First in the procession of lovers came Orlando—Miss Ervin—and his Rosalind—Miss Henry; also Miss Catherine Sullivan as Celia, Miss Marguerite Henry as Touchstone, Miss Sarah Prince an Audrey, Miss Helen Burriss at William, Miss Eula Mae Turbeville, an Jaquez, Miss Grace Watkins as Corin, Miss Izette Pruitt, as Silvius, and Miss Margaret Clement as Phoebe. This rustic revelry was gracefully carried out, much to the amusement and delight of the spectators. Very clever acting was that of Miss Nelle Gentry as Lorenzo and Miss Nelle Darracott as Jessica, these two playing parts in the Moonlight scene. Miss Nelle Martin played the part of Miranda, Miss Maggie Shirley as Ferdinand and Miss Zullene Masters as Prospero. This was a mucl enjoyed part.. Your honour's players are com to play a pleasant comedy," carried out by Miss Nelle Gentry as Petru-chio, Miss Wilma Ervin as Katharina and Miss Maggie Shirley as Daptista was delightfully rendered.

"Your answer in broken music" was next on the program, with Miss Masters, Miss Norris and Miss Burriss as the chief characters, these representing King Henry V. Princess Katharine of France and Alice. Juliet and her Romea, M'ss McGe as Romeo and Miss Catherine Sulli-van as Juliet, was a distinct feature and greatly enjoyed.

The epilogue by Miss Izetta Pruitt

was much enjoyed. A pretty feature of the entertainment and one much enjoyed was the songs interspersed among the scenes. The eingers were Miss Sarah Strana-tlian and Zenobia Welch; Messrs. 1. Fi. Rice and Sam Orr Tribble. Dr. Snyder made an address on "Some Thoughts on the Three Hundredt."

A golf club in Anderson seems an assured fact since about 25 members have been signed by those who have been making a canvass for he past few days. At a meeting to be held during the early part of this next week organization will be perfected and by-laws to govern the club will be adopted.

The course is to be located just beyond North Anderson on the property of Mr. R. C. McKinney and is said to be ideally situated. Just what kind of a club house is to be crected has not yet been decided up-
